Notice Of Privacy Practices

HOW WE MAY USE AND DISCLOSE YOUR HEALTH INFORMATION

1. Treatment, Payment And Business Operations:

with your general written consent, we may use your health information or share it with others in order to provide you with treatment or care obtain payment for that treatment or care, and run our business operations. In some cases, we may also disclose your health information for payment activities and certain business operations of another health care provider or payor. Below are further examples of how your information may be used and disclosed for these purposes.

Treatment: We may share your health information with counselors and other treatment providers at Unique People Services Inc, Unique People Services AIDS who are involved in taking care of you, and they may in turn use that information to diagnose or treat you. A treatment provider at Unique People Services Inc, Unique People Services AIDS may share your health information with another treatment provider inside our facility, or with a treatment provider at another health care facility, to determine how to diagnose or treat you. Your treatment provider may also share your health information with another treatment provider to whom you have been referred for further health care.

Payment: We may use your health information or share it with others so that we may obtain payment for your health care services. For example, we may share information about you with Medicare, Medicaid, or your health insurance company in order to obtain reimbursement for treatment or care we have provided to you, or to determine whether it will cover your future treatment or care. Finally, we may share your information with other providers and payors for their payment activities.

Business Operations: We may use your health information or share it with others in order to conduct our business operations. For example, we may use your health information to evaluate the performance of our staff in caring for you, or to educate our staff on how to improve the care they provide for you. Finally, we may share your health information with other health care providers and payors for certain of their business operations if the information is related to a relationship the provider or payor currently has or previously had with you, and if the provider or payor is required by federal law to protect the privacy of your health information.

Treatment Alternatives, Benefits and Services: In the course of providing treatment to you, we may use your health information to contact you in order to recommend possible treatment alternatives or health-related benefits and services that may be of interest to you.

Fundraising: To support our business operations, we may use demographic information about you, including information about your age and gender, when deciding whether to contact you or your personal representative(a person authorized under state or other applicable laws to act on the behalf of you in making health care related decisions) to raise money to help us operate. We may also share this information with a charitable foundation that will contact you or your personal representative to raise money on our behalf.

Notice Of Privacy Practices

Business Associates: we may disclose your health information to contractors, agents and other business associates who need the information in order to assist us with obtaining payment or carrying out our business operations. For example, we may share your health information with a billing company that helps us to obtain payment from Medicaid or your insurance company. Another example is that we may share your health information with an accounting firm or law firm that provides professional advice to us about how to improve our health care services and comply with the law. If we do disclose your health information to a business associate, we will have a written contract to ensure that our business associate also protects the privacy of your health information.

We can do all of these things if you have signed a general written consent form. Once you sign this general written consent form, it will be in effect indefinitely until you revoke your general written consent.

You may revoke your general written consent at any time, except to the extent that we have already relied upon it. For example, if we provide you with treatment or care before you revoke your general written consent, we may still share your health information with your insurance company in order to obtain payment for that treatment or care. To revoke your general written consent, please write to Yvette Brissett-Andre, Executive Director at the Main Office.

Family And Friends

We may use your health information in, and share it with family and friends involved in your care, without your written authorization. We will always give you an opportunity to object unless you are incapacitated when you first arrive at Unique People Services Inc, Unique People Services AIDS (in which case we will discuss your preferences with you as soon as you regain capacity). We will follow your wishes unless we are required by law to do otherwise.

Family and Friends Involved In Your Care: If you do not object, we may share your health information with a family member, relative, or close personal friend who is involved in your care or payment for that care. We may also notify a family member, or another person responsible for your care about your location and general condition here at Unique People Services Inc, Unique People Services AIDS, or about the unfortunate event of your death. In some cases, we may need to share your information with a disaster relief organization that will help us notify these persons.

Emergencies Or Public Need:

We may use your health information, and share it with others, in order to treat you in an emergency or to meet important public needs. We will not be required to obtain your general written consent before using or disclosing your information for these reasons. We will, however, obtain your written authorization for, or provide you with an opportunity to object to, the use and disclosure of your health information in these situations when state law specifically requires that we do so.

Notice Of Privacy Practices

Emergencies: We may use or disclose your health information if you need emergency treatment or if we are required by law to treat you but are unable to obtain your general written consent. If this happens, we will try to obtain your consent as soon as we reasonably can after we treat you.

Communication Barriers: We may use and disclose your health information if we are unable to obtain your consent because of substantial communication barriers, and we believe you would want us to treat you if we could communicate with you.

As Required By Law: We may use or disclose your health information if we are required by law to do so. We also will notify you of these uses and disclosures if notice is required by law.

Public Health Activities: We may disclose your health information to authorized public health officials (or a foreign government agency collaborating with such officials) so they may carry out their public health activities. For example, we may share your health information with government officials that are responsible for controlling disease, injury or disability. We may also disclose your health information to a person who may have been exposed to a communicable disease or be at risk for contracting or spreading the disease if a law permits us to do so.

Victims of Abuse, Neglect or Domestic Violence: We may release your health information to a public health authority that is authorized to receive reports of abuse, neglect or domestic violence. For example, we may report your information to government officials if we reasonably believe that you have been a victim of such abuse, neglect or domestic violence. We will make every effort to obtain your permission before releasing this information, but in some cases, we may be required or authorized to act without your permission.

Health Oversight Activities: We may release your health information to government agencies authorized to conduct audits, investigations, and inspections of our facility. These government agencies monitor the operation of the health care system, government benefit programs such as Medicare and Medicaid, and compliance with government regulatory programs and civil rights laws.

Product Monitoring, Repair and Recall: We may disclose your health information to a person or company that is regulated by the Food and Drug Administration for the purpose of: (1) reporting or tracking product defects or problems; (2) repairing, replacing, or recalling defective or dangerous products; or (3) monitoring the performance of a product after it has been approved for use by the general public.

Lawsuits and Disputes: We may disclose your health information if we are ordered to do so by a court or administrative tribunal that is handling a lawsuit or other dispute.

Law Enforcement: We may disclose your health information to law enforcement officials for the following reasons:

Notice Of Privacy Practices

- ❖ To comply with court orders or laws that we are required to follow;
- ❖ To assist law enforcement officers with identifying or locating a suspect, fugitive, witness, or missing person;
- ❖ If you have been the victim of a crime and we determine that: (1) we have been unable to obtain your general written consent because of an emergency or your incapacity; (2) law enforcement officials need this information immediately to carry out their law enforcement duties; and (3) in our professional judgment disclosure to these officers is in your best interests;
- ❖ If we suspect that your death resulted from criminal conduct; or
- ❖ If necessary to report a crime that occurred on our property.

To Avert A Serious And Imminent Threat To Health Or Safety: We may use your health information or share it with others when necessary to prevent a serious and imminent threat to your health or safety, or the health or safety of another person or the public. In such cases, we will only share your information with someone able to help prevent the threat. We may also disclose your health information to law enforcement officers if you tell us that you participated in a violent crime that may have caused serious physical harm to another person (unless you admitted that fact while in counseling), or if we determine that you escaped from lawful custody (such as a prison or mental health institution).

National Security and Intelligence Activities or Protective Services: We may disclose your health information to authorized federal officials who are conducting national security and intelligence activities or providing protective services to the President or other important officials.

Inmates And Correctional Institutions: If you later become incarcerated at a correctional institution or detained by a law enforcement officer, we may disclose your health information to the prison officers or law enforcement officers if necessary to provide you with health care, or to maintain safety, security and good order at the place where you are confined. This includes sharing information that is necessary to protect the health and safety of other inmates or persons involved in supervising or transporting inmates.

Workers' Compensation: We may disclose your health information for workers' compensation or similar programs that provide benefits for work-related injuries.

Coroners, Medical Examiners and Funeral Directors: In the unfortunate event of your death, we may disclose your health information to a coroner or medical examiner. This may be necessary, for example, to determine the cause of death. We may also release this information to funeral directors as necessary to carry out their duties.

Organ and Tissue Donation: In the unfortunate event of your death, we may disclose your health information to organizations that procure or store organs, eyes or other tissues so that these organizations may investigate whether donation or transplantation is possible under applicable laws.

Notice Of Privacy Practices

Research: In most cases, we will ask for your written authorization before using your health information or sharing it with others in order to conduct research. However, under some circumstances, we may use and disclose your health information without your written authorization if we obtain approval through a special process to ensure that research without your written authorization poses minimal risk to your privacy. Under no circumstances, however, would we allow researchers to use your name or identity publicly. We may also release your health information without your written authorization to people who are preparing a future research project, so long as any information identifying you does not leave our facility.

In the unfortunate event of your death, we may share your health information with people who are conducting research using the information of deceased persons, as long as they agree not to remove from our facility any information that identifies you.

Completely De-identified Or Partially De-identified Information:

We may use and disclose your health information if we have removed any information that has the potential to identify you so that the health information is "completely de-identified." We may also use and disclose "partially de-identified" health information about you if the person who will receive the information signs an agreement to protect the privacy of the information as required by federal and state law. Partially de-identified health information will not contain any information that would directly identify you (such as your name, street address, social security number, phone number, fax number, electronic mail address, website address, or license number).

Incidental Disclosures:

While we will take reasonable steps to safeguard the privacy of your health information, certain disclosures of your health information may occur during or as an unavoidable result of our otherwise permissible uses or disclosures of your health information. For example, during the course of a treatment session, other residents in the treatment area may see, or overhear discussion of, your health information.

YOUR RIGHTS TO ACCESS AND CONTROL YOUR HEALTH INFORMATION

We want you to know that you have the following rights to access and control your health information. These rights are important because they will help you make sure that the health information we have about you is accurate. They may also help you control the way we use your information and share it with others, or the way we communicate with you about your medical matters.

Right To Inspect And Copy Records:

You have the right to inspect and obtain a copy of any of your health information that may be used to make decisions about you and your treatment for as long as we maintain this information in our records. This includes medical and billing records. To inspect or obtain a copy of your health information, please submit your request to Shirley Jabbi, Privacy Officer, at 4234 Vireo Avenue, Bronx, NY 10470. If you request a copy of the information, we may charge a fee for the costs of copying, mailing or other supplies we use to fulfill your request. The standard fee is $0.75 per page and must generally be paid before or at the time we give the copies to you. We will respond to your written request for inspection of records within 10 days. We ordinarily will respond to verbal requests for copies within 30 days if the information is located in our facility and within 60 days if it is located off site at another facility. If we need additional time to respond to a request for copies, we will notify you in writing within the time frame above to explain the reason for the delay and when you can expect to have a final answer to your request.

Under certain very limited circumstances, we may deny your request to inspect or obtain a copy of your information. If we do, we will provide you with a summary of the information instead. We will also provide a written notice that explains our reasons for providing only a summary, and a complete description of your rights to have that decision reviewed and how you can exercise those rights.

The notice will also include information on how to file a complaint about these issues with us or with the Secretary of the Department of Health and Human Services. If we have reason to deny only part of your request, we will provide complete access to the remaining parts after excluding the information we cannot let you inspect or copy.

Right To Amend Records:

If you believe that the health information we have about you is incorrect or incomplete, you may ask us to amend the information. You have the right to request an amendment for as long as the information is kept in our records.

To request an amendment, please write to Shirley Jabbi, Privacy Officer at 4234 Vireo Avenue, Bronx, NY 10470. Your request should include the reasons why you think we should make the amendment. Ordinarily we will respond to your request within 60 days. If we need additional time to respond, we will notify you in writing within 60 days to explain the reason for the delay and when you can expect to have a final answer to your request.

If we deny part or your entire request, we will provide a written notice that explains our reasons for doing so. You will have the right to have certain information related to your requested amendment included in your records. For example, if you disagree with our decision, you will have an opportunity to submit a statement explaining your disagreement, which we will include in your records. We will also include information on how to file a complaint with us or with the Secretary of the Department of Health and Human Services. These procedures will be explained in more detail in any written denial notice we send you.

Right To An Accounting Of Disclosures:

After April 14, 2003, you have a right to request an "accounting of disclosures" which identifies certain other persons or organizations to whom we have disclosed your health information in accordance with applicable law and the protections afforded in this Notice of Privacy Practices. An accounting of disclosures does not describe the ways that your health information has been shared within and between Unique People Services Inc, Unique People Services AIDS and the facilities listed at the beginning of this notice, as long as all other protections described in this Notice of Privacy Practices have been followed,

Notice Of Privacy Practices

An accounting of disclosures also does not include information about the following disclosures:

- ❖ Disclosures we made to you or your personal representative;
- ❖ Disclosures we made pursuant to your written authorization;
- ❖ Disclosures we made for treatment, payment or business operations;
- ❖ Disclosures made from our facility directory;
- ❖ Disclosures made to your friends and family involved in your care or payment for your care;
- ❖ Disclosures that were incidental to permissible uses and disclosures of your health information (for example, when information is overheard by another resident passing by);
- ❖ Disclosures for purposes of research, public health or our business operations of limited portions of your health information that do not directly identify you;
- ❖ Disclosures made to federal officials for national security and intelligence activities;
- ❖ Disclosures about inmates to correctional institutions or law enforcement officers; or
- ❖ Disclosures made before April 14, 2003.

To request an accounting of disclosures, please write to Shirley Jabbi, Privacy Officer at 4234 Vireo Avenue, Bronx, NY 10470. Your request must state a time period within the past six years (but after April 14, 2003) for the disclosures you want us to include. For example, you may request a list of the disclosures that we made between January 1, 2004 and January 1, 2005. You have a right to receive one accounting within every 12 month period for free. However, we may charge you for the cost of providing any additional accounting in that same 12 month period. We will always notify you of any cost involved so that you may choose to withdraw or modify your request before any costs are incurred.

Ordinarily we will respond to your request for an accounting within 60 days. If we need additional time to prepare the accounting you have requested, we will notify you in writing about the reason for the delay and the date when you can expect to receive the accounting. In rare cases, we may have to delay providing you with the accounting without notifying you because a law enforcement official or government agency has asked us to do so.

Right To Request Additional Privacy Protections:

You have the right to request that we further restrict the way we use and disclose your health information to provide you with treatment or care collect payment for that treatment or care, or run our business operations. You may also request that we limit how we disclose information about you to family or friends involved in your care. For example, you could request that we not disclose information about a surgery you had. To request restrictions, please write to Shirley Jabbi, Privacy Officer at 4234 Vireo Avenue, Bronx, NY 10470. Your request should include (1) what information you want to limit; (2) whether you want to limit how we use the information, how we share it with others, or both; and (3) to whom you want the limits to apply.

Notice Of Privacy Practices

We are not required to agree to your request for a restriction, and in some cases, the restriction you request may not be permitted under law. However, if we do agree, we will be bound by our agreement unless the information is needed to provide you with emergency treatment or comply with the law. Once we have agreed to a restriction, you have the right to revoke the restriction at any time. Under some circumstances, we will also have the right to revoke the restriction as long as we notify you before doing so; in other cases, we will need your permission before we can revoke the restriction.

Right To Request Confidential Communications:

You have the right to request that we communicate with you or your advocate about your medical matters in a more confidential way by requesting that we communicate with you by alternative means or at alternative locations. To request more confidential communications, please write to Shirley Jabbi Privacy Officer at 4234 Vireo Avenue, Bronx, NY 10470. We will not ask you the reason for your request, and we will try to accommodate all reasonable requests. Please specify in your request how you or your advocate wishes to be contacted, and how payment for your health care will be handled if we communicate with your advocate through this alternative method or location.
